Recent news

Appointments

Professor Jennifer Seberry (<http://www.uow.edu.au/~jennie/>) has been appointed Emeritus Professor at the University of Wollongong, NSW.

Michael Brand (http://www.infotech.monash.edu.au/research/profiles/profile.html?sid=4934243&pid=11458#summary_hidden/) has rejoined the Faculty of I.T. and Discrete Maths Research Group at Monash University, this time as an Associate Professor (Data Science). He has over 20 years of experience in that field, most recently with Pivotal Inc. For his past life at Monash, see http://combinatoricswiki.org/wiki/CMSA_E-Newsletter_39#Medal

New PhD

Bin Jia recently completed his PhD thesis entitled Link Graphs (<https://minerva-access.unimelb.edu.au/handle/11343/55046/>) at the University of Melbourne. It was supervised by David Wood. Congratulations to both.

The Laborastory

Several Monash University combinatorialists have recently given talks at The Laborastory, <http://thelaborastory.com/>, a monthly event in Melbourne where five scientists from different fields tell inspiring and often amusing stories of science – the heroes, the egos, the breakthroughs and the mistakes of genius.

The Australasian Journal of Combinatorics

The website for the Australasian Journal of Combinatorics is <http://ajc.maths.uq.edu.au/>.

The Journal is now online only, free for readers and authors (so it is a "diamond open access" journal). There are three volumes per year, with each volume closing in February, June and October, matching the time of publication of the old paper volumes. Volumes are currently being uploaded in three batches. All three parts of Volume 62 are now online. Volume 63 part 1 will appear in August.

Visit <http://ajc.maths.uq.edu.au/> and sign up to subscribe to email notices whenever new papers are published. The contents of all volumes, 1 to 62, are listed at the above web page.

Submissions to the Australasian Journal of Combinatorics may be sent to ajc@maths.uq.edu.au. Only pdf files are required at submission stage.

The Journal is now indexed by Scopus from Volume 13 (1996) onwards.

ISSN: 2202-3518 (online only, after 2013); 1034-4942 (paper, before 2014).
